

Structural Steel Project Profile

Residential Building Frames

808 Columbus New York, NY

This residential building project in New York, NY, covers 97th to 100th streets and included 220,000 square feet of retail.

Ocean Steel's Conklin, NY plant and Saint John, NB plant shared the fabrication of this project, to cut the fabrication time in half and meet an aggressive construction schedule. Working as a team, the two plants excelled in their efforts to provide a quality product in a timely manner.
